This year was destined to be outstanding because of the determination of students. It was a year of success because of their loyalty and spirit; a year of accomplishment because of their support and service; a year in which goals were met and victories were won, and a year in which defeat was seen but little.

This year at Brown began with the cheers of its students as our Wonders played their first football game. The stillness of classrooms resounded as students renewed learning activities. Brown was a new and bewildering school for some; an old and familiar school for others, but as sophomores, juniors, seniors, we formed one group with lives entwined into the life of Brown and into a year that was already a great year, our year.

For each of us this year holds a treasure of moments that can never be relived, but will never be forgotten.

enthusiastic, never

Victory and defeat, the brotherhood of competition here is seen. The scores put on paper tell only a part of the story, for an undefeated, never yielding spirit cannot be measured in points gained or missed. The game played well and lost stands equally with the game played well and won.

The cheers of Brown's students echoing in a stadium or a gymnasium reflect confidence and pride in our teams. Our fight song and alma mater, symbols of never ending triumph, have become synonymous with every year of Brown. Hours of work and devotion always build and never destroy. Victories of the heart remain warm with the fires of the unconquered.

The spring tapping of the Key Club was an assembly never to be forgotten.

Student participation is the key to making any year outstanding. It is the core of school spirit and the center of school life. A closeness is brought about by working together as a club, a committee, or a cast for the success of a project, a dance, a play. Laughter, fun, work are contributed to by all and shared by all. Expressions of individuality are listened to; new ideas emerge; better ideas emerge. Everyone strives for perfection with contributions of time and effort. Personal glory is lost in the desire to help achieve a goal as the missing piece of a plan is fitted into its proper place. Building bit by bit, tearing down and building again until a goal is reached, until there is a satisfactory feeling of accomplishment. The project, the dance, the play is completed, and the success is not the achievement of one, but on many acting as one.

Juniors diligently rehearse THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST.

Happiness and delight are reflected on the faces of students as the last strains of a guitar echo through the auditorium filled with captivated students. Someone steps up to the microphone; a new song begins. The band forms a KHS; the cheerleaders lead our fight song; a queen is crowned. Homecoming students remember when they were caught in the excitement of football games. Friendly faces everywhere, students together, laughing, cheering. Somewhere, a tear; everywhere, a hope.

Personalities, none alike, react with the alertness of youth. Smiles are spontaneous and warm. Laughter is innocent and knowing. Students reach out, strive for maturity, set goals, achieve goals, set higher goals. Yet each searches always for a deeper understanding of fellow students, a clearer picture of the road to come, a more meaningful way of life, and a better knowledge of himself.

The long halls of Brown reflect the spirit of its students. The doors of these halls lead into classrooms where the never ending process of learning goes on. There are the experiments and answers, and the questions that cannot be answered. Continuous is the search for explanations, better explanations. One day there is an easy quiz, then, a difficult test, a research paper to prepare, or a book to read. Pressure is never ending, but here lie the foundations on which we build our lives. All is preparation for the life that lies ahead, a stepping stone to the future. Teachers, trying to direct young minds, always stress the value of knowledge. Years of learning piece together facts, and youthful innocence disappears. This is the beginning of knowledge, the beginning of wisdom.

DEDICATION

A radiant light since our advent to Brown...

A woman of devotion, of ardent loyalty, of knowledge and understanding far greater than we can conceive,

Possessing abundant wisdom,
and yet that gift of congeniality...

Evoking admiration and respect from all who know her,

Encouraging and guiding us,
though we have met many pitfalls.

Lighting a path that all may follow...

We, the annual staff of A.L. Brown, dedicate the 1965 ALBROKAN to...

Mrs. Veron Gilmore

As juniors, again we followed you through Washington.

A.L. Brown High School, our Alma mater, our school. Halls, walked countless times during our years at Brown are showcases for our spirit. Classrooms, holding desks scarred by us and those before us, are full of books and wisdom. The auditorium is a shell of assemblies, pageants, hootenannies. Lockers filled with books, our favorite meeting places, are treasure chests of memories. The campus, crisscrossed with sidewalks, wet with rain, white with snow, sweet in spring, surrounds the flag pole, proud bearer of the honor of our nation, the honor of our school.

A.L. Brown High School, our Alma mater, our school.

The Senior Class of 1965

It is not easy for us to realize that twelve long years are now so near completion. The memories of our years at Brown are precious to us, and we recall them with fondness and yet with a certain amount of sadness. The knowledge and guidance we have received are a solid step toward our future plans and dreams.

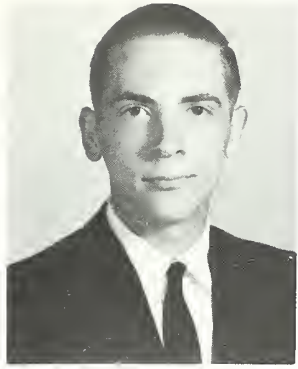

From the very beginning of the year with football games and the hot dog soles to Senior Day and graduation, we have strived to make this our very best year. It will lead us into a life of new opportunities.

To those who follow us, we leave the privilege of leading Brown as we go forward to accept the responsibilities of an ever changing world.

Miss Vanessa Elizabeth McKew
Brown's First Foreign Exchange Student

Foreign Exchange Student

A foreign exchange student for Brown High has been a dream of many students for a long time, and this dream has finally been fulfilled.

The Student Council in November, 1963, appointed a Foreign Exchange Student Committee consisting of seven students to guide the planning to secure an exchange student for Brown High.

This committee met and prepared a list of reasons why Brown needed an exchange student. This list was taken to the Kannapolis City School Board, and the foreign exchange student program was approved by the board.

The committee then wrote the American Field Service Headquarters in New York City and received forms on the school and community to be filled out.

Next the committee had to raise seven hundred dollars by February 15, and the month of December had already begun.

A hootenanny was decided upon as the best means of raising money and raising it in a hurry!

On January 25 the hootenanny was held. For three hours the audience enjoyed the music of The Slimy River Bottom Boys, Mr. Charles Joyner, The Court Jesters, The The Winstons, and The Travelers. About eleven hundred dollars was received from the hootenanny.

With the needed money in hand, an American Field Service Chapter was formed. This Chapter is made up of interested adults in the community. This is the coordinating body for the exchange student program.

In May, 1964, the American Field Service Chapter received the papers on Miss Vanessa McKew which they gladly approved. The next day in assembly the name of the new exchange student was announced to the student body.

Many clubs and individuals wrote Vanessa to welcome her to Brown as a student. This correspondence continued throughout the summer prior to Vanessa's arrival.

In August Vanessa arrived and was welcomed into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Ridenhour and their daughter, Jan.

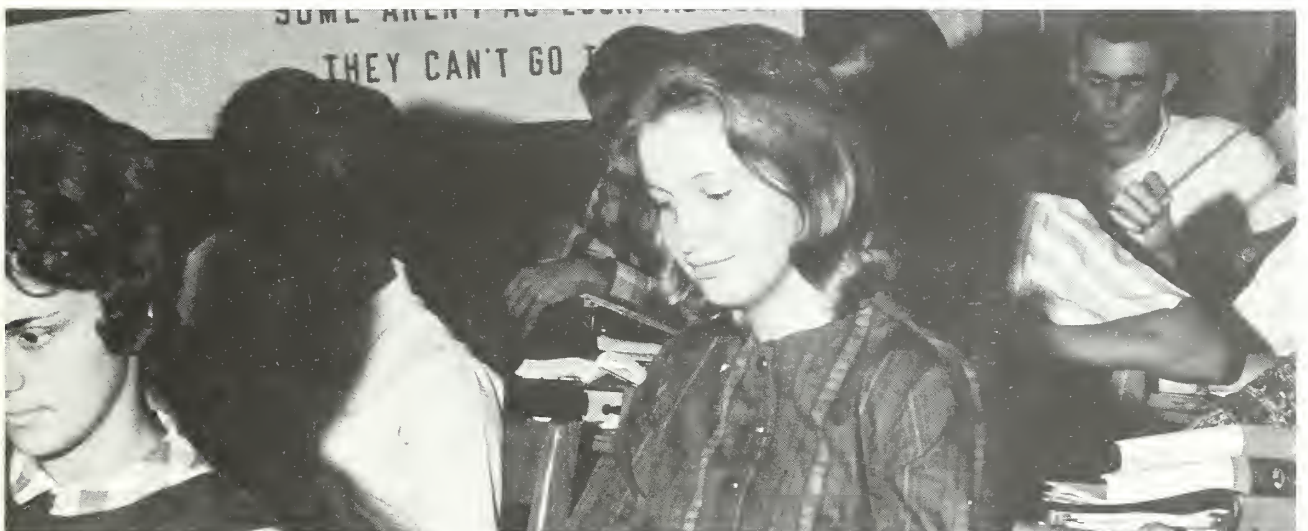

Since December 1 Vanessa has been making talks throughout the community and has been an excellent representative of Brown High School.

Vanessa was a stranger for only a very short time and then her pleasant personality and gentle manner made her become a true "Southerner."

Vanessa and her American sister "chat" about England.

Vanessa adjusted hurriedly to Brown and became a friend to everyone.

The Junior Class

Our Junior year was a particularly wonderful, never-to-be-forgotten year. It was full of all the excitement of any year at Brown, but for us it held much more. We were still making new friends, building new dreams, and planning for the future.

The long awaited Washington Trip will always be remembered as will our first Junior-Senior Dance. We will recall how whole-heartedly we put ourselves into making our Junior Class Play a success. We can never forget how we felt when we received our class rings, making us officially the class of 1966.

It will not be long before the Senior Class turns the leadership of Brown over to us and we will enter our Senior year with the same determination for success.

The Sophomore Class

As sophomores of Brown High, we will never forget our first impressions of the school. Everything was new—the building, the students, the teachers. It was exciting and sometimes a bit confusing, but we continued with the determination to make ourselves a part of the student body. We will always remember selling peanuts at the football games, homecoming, College Night, and the entirely new, but very exciting Chocolate Sale.

We knew that with the completion of this year there would still be two years left at Brown, but we were already beginning the growth which is to lead us through our junior and senior years. We became just a little wiser and gained many new friendships which will endure with the memories of this, our sophomore year.

Student Organization

The Student Organization of A. L. Brown High School is the means by which the student body aids directly in the administration of the school. It is the official organ for student expression in matters pertaining to the welfare of the student body. The student organization consists of two bodies. Session House is composed of homeroom representatives and Council is composed of class representatives. The officers of the student body are members of both groups.

The purposes are as follows: to establish and maintain a higher moral standard; to develop intelligent leaders and followers; to insure a spirit of democracy; to promote a closer relationship among the student body, the faculty, and the community; to create a respect and ambition for higher scholastic attainments; to encourage co-operation and participation of students in all school activities.

ALBROKAN Editor

Albroman and

Two individual staffs serve the school this year, the annual and newspaper staffs. Work on the ALBROKAN and BROWN BEAT begins early in the summer as industrious staff members meet to decide on a theme, solicit ads, or scout the town in search of news.

The going is often times rough, with frantic editors, anxious to meet deadlines, or staffers and advisor experiencing throbbing headaches and tingling nerves. The work requires creativity, diligence, and countless hours of time. Diligence and patience are perhaps the two most important criteria of a staffer. Serving on one of the staffs is one of the greatest experiences a student can have, for it is deeply rewarding to him to see the results of his labors in print.

The Brawn High Band, consisting of some 147 members, is the pride of the school and community. The band members in their sharp new, green and white uniforms, performed half time shows, several concerts, and marched in two Christmas parades this year.

The band is directed by Mr. Harvey Turner and assisted by Mr. Jim Parker. Mr. Turner uses his originality to plan spectacular formations used in nine half-time shows this year. Two weeks before the beginning of school in September, the band is hard at work in marching drills which continue until December. After marching season, the concert band is assembled, playing in assembly and P.T.A.

Kannapolis blacks Concord's try for a score.

Under the leadership of head Coach Roy Boyles, in his first season at Brown, the '64-65 Little Wonder football team compiled a 5-5 won-lost record. The season opened on a strong note as the Wonders beat Salisbury Boyden 12-0. The Boyden game was followed by a hard-fought 3-7 loss to the East Mecklenburg Eagles.

The third game was a 27-7 victory over North Rowan. Next came a 6-0 victory over Statesville and a 13-7 win over Albermarle.

The sixth game of the season was the most important to date, the South Rowan game. South was undefeated, untied, and unscored on until they fell to the Wonders by 14-7.

Conference powerhouse Thomasville beat the Wonders 40-7, Asheboro won 31-6, and Mooresville squeezed to a 12-6 victory.

Concord again skinned by the Wonders by a 13-12 margin. It gave the Spiders the bell for the fourth year in a row.

The Wonders were led throughout the season by tailback Keith Honeycutt, co-captains Gerald Hilton, an end, and Wesley Edison, a tackle. Hilton won the Lug Leazer and Owen C. Hill trophies. Edison was on all-conference choice.

The 1964-65 Little Wonder basketball team was picked up as one of the favorites in the South Piedmont Conference. As the annual went to press, the Wonders had a 9-0 record. Only one of these was a conference game.

The one conference game was a 65-53 victory over the Concord Spiders. In this game, the Wonders trailed at the half 29-28. In the second half, the team began a comeback that netted the final 12 point margin.

The Wonder's 82 points, in an 82-56 romp past Odell, was the biggest output of the season so far. The Wonders held Odell to 31 points in the other Odell game, an 81-31 victory. This was the best defensive game of the year.

This years squad was led by senior co-captains Ronnie Sherrill and Lynn Dayvault. Joining them as starters were senior Mokey Correll, and Juniors Broadus Hamilton and Marty Payne.

Girls' Basketball

The 1964-65 girls basketball team completed their pre-conference games with an undefeated record and began the conference battle by whipping a highly rated Concord team. The Wonderettes displayed the teamwork and will to win that is necessary for a team to be successful.

This year's squad is a more experienced team than last year's, and they are showing great promise for a tournament berth. The Wonderettes are led by seniors Sandy Argo and Delores Fox, juniors Pam Brigman, Carmen DeMarcus and Vicki Childress, and sophomore Mary Lida Alexander. This year the team is under the leadership of Coach Roy Boyles.

Class History

by Joe Honeycutt

All life is bathed in a light of change; without this, life would not be worth living. By adapting to these changes, man has made his life much more fruitful and meaningful. The transition from freshman to sophomore was one of the biggest changes in our lives. As sophomores, we stepped into a bright, new world, A.L. Brown High School. At first we were somewhat overwhelmed by our strange surroundings, by the many varied subjects, by authoritative, busy, unpredictable teachers, and by dominant upperclassmen, who somewhat overshadowed us; but we, as man has through the ages, adapted to our new-found world and plunged headlong into becoming a vital part of its work, learning as we went.

With our new positions came new responsibilities, which were to grow with time. We elected the following class officers to help us shoulder our early responsibility: Jimmy Fowler, president; Ann Rainey, Vice-president; Jo Ann Jackson, secretary; Ronnie Cauble, treasurer; Jay Stirewalt and Ginger Lyerly, student council representatives. As the year progressed, we looked to Mr. Elmer Poole, our class advisor, for help and guidance.

As increasingly important citizens of our school, we absorbed our role with vitality. The first of our class to be tapped into the Honor Society were Ginger Lyerly, Danita Brigman, Jay Stirewalt, and Grover Smith. Other clubs also recognized the leadership and ability of members of our class. The Key Club accepted Gerald Hilton, Charles Biggerstaff, Jay Stirewalt, Lynn Dayvault, Ronnie Sherrill, Grover Smith, and Ronnie Cauble into its ranks. The Quill & Scroll adopted into its membership Paula Smith, Nancy Dwiggin, Judy Plummer, and Joe Honeycutt. Near the end of the year, Ginger Lyerly was elected secretary of the student body for the coming year, and Charles Biggerstaff assumed the office of school treasurer for the 1963-1964 school year. For her outstanding journalistic ability, Paula Smith was selected to be the ALBROKAN, 1964 editor; while Judy Morris, Deanna Baker, Jane King, and Amy Gillon were to represent our class as cheerleaders during the approaching year. We had worked hard during our sophomore year, and we were proud of our achievements including the fact that early during the year we had eagerly sold more of the World's Finest Chocolate than either the junior or the senior class.

Our sophomore year, however, passed quickly, and suddenly, as juniors, we found ourselves taller and straighter. We had more self-confidence, but we were not quite sure of our potential. We wasted no time in electing our class officers. Ricky Sims became our president; Gerald Hilton our vice-president, Lynette Kimball was chosen to be secretary; Ronnie Sherrill was our treasurer; Jane King and Jay Stirewalt were student council representatives; and Jo Ann Jackson accepted the task of social chairman. Throughout this year Mrs. Van Poole, as our advisor, lead us and helped us to help ourselves. Now more of our class participated in the school's activities. Again the Honor Society recognized our scholastic abilities as it tapped Susan Lewis, Elaine Freeze, Susan Safrit, Willene Clark, Carol Brown, Charles Biggerstaff, Paula Smith, Marty Erwin, and Lynette Kimball. The Key Club voted in Ricky Sims, Tony Jackson, and Mickey Norris, and a junior, Jay Stirewalt, was selected to be the club's secretary. The Quill & Scroll expanded its membership to include more of our ranks as Celina Lowder, Jeff Carnes, Donna Holder, Richard Harris, Elaine Freeze, and Judy Frye were inducted. Our Washington trip left us all lingering memories and material for hours of conversation. At our first junior-senior prom, we travelled to frolicking New Orleans for the gay and extravagant "Mardi Gras." In the spring of this year, we also helped sponsor a Hootenanny to raise funds for a foreign exchange student, earning $1,100 through our efforts. We were eager to see the foreign exchange program established here at Brown, and we wanted to be on record as the first class to have an American Field Service student graduate in its number. Our Classplay, a comedy entitled THE MOUSE THAT ROARED, was a grand success. At the year's end, Jane King was chosen chief cheerleader for the coming year, and Amy Gillan, Deanna Baker, Linda Biggers, and Nancy Jo Barnhardt were elected to serve on the cheerleading squad with her. Jane King was also crowned Junior Miss Hi Miss. The BROWN BEAT and ALBROKAN editorships for the coming year were placed in the hands of Judy Plummer and Nancy Dwiggin, respectively. In the spring student government elections, Jay Stirewalt was elected to guide the student body through the coming year as president, and Charles Biggerstaff was elected to the vice-presidency.

With two-thirds of our high school life behind us, we abruptly found ourselves seniors, and again we participated in additional activities and received greater responsibilities. Much more was expected from us than previously was, for now we were leaders. We were expected to set the example for those who were behind us, and we determined to give them goals that would require diligent effort to obtain.

For the last time, we, the class of 1965, chose the officers who would direct us: Tony Jackson served us as president; Lynn Dayvault, as vice-president; Danita Brigman, as treasurer; Jo Ann Jackson, as secretary; Judy Sloop, as chaplain; and Gerald Hilton and Lynette Kimball represented us in the student council.

With practiced skill, and under the supervision of Miss Loraine Gray, the class of 1965 took over the helm of student life. The Honor Society began its year as Grover Smith assumed the club's presidency, and Ginger Lyerly became vice-president. Marty Erwin was chosen treasurer, and Paula Smith officiated as secretary. The Key Club elected into its company Bill Carrier, Dennis Broome, Jimmy Fowler, Ronnie Shull, Larry Coggins, and Joe Honeycutt. Ricky Sims served as the president of the club, Ronnie Cauble managed the vice-presidency, and Mickey Norris took over the treasurer's office. Early in the second semester, the Quill & Scroll recognized Ricky Sims, Ronnie Shull and Beverly Landers for their work on school publications by tapping them into membership. The senior class, after deliberating many hours over the selection of Hall of Fame members, finally elected the following, recognizing them for their contributions to the school: Charles Biggerstaff, Ronnie Cauble, Lynn Dayvault, Jimmy Fowler, Gerald Hilton, Joe Honeycutt, Tony Jackson, Mickey Norris, John Patterson, Ronnie Sherrill, Ricky Sims, Grover Smith, Jay Stirewalt, Suzanne Barger, Danita Brigman, Carol Brown, Nancy Dwiggin, Sherri Glenn, Jo Ann Jackson, Lynette Kimball, Jane King, Ginger Lyerly, Dehlia Marlin, Cynthia McGinnis, Susan Safrit, and Paula Smith. Beauty in our class was also recognized as Sherri Glenn was selected for the honor of Miss Brown High. Suzanne Barger presided over the homecoming events, and Amy Gillon reigned as the year's May Queen with Ginger Lyerly as her maid of honor. In the sports arena, Gerald Hilton was selected by his teammates to receive the coveted Lug Leazer award, and, by the entire student body to receive the Hill trophy. In addition to selling senior hot dogs at football games, our class found time to present a senior class play, the first in five years, entitled THE CURIOUS SAVAGE. Mr. Shinn kindly consented to be borrowed from the junior class long enough to help us with this project which was another success.

Reflecting upon the future, we chose "We have followed; now we lead," as our motto. We chose green and gold as our colors, and the yellow rose was chosen to be our flower. Denise York and Timothy Broome were adopted as our mascots.

While at Brown High, our class earned several distinctions. Specifically, we were the largest class ever enrolled at Brown; we did become the first to have a foreign exchange student, Vanessa McKew from England; and we also earned one of the largest senior bank accounts in the history of the school, about $1,500. Most of this balance was the result of selling hot dogs at home football games, a project which earned our senior class $915.71 as clear profit, again the largest since Brown's beginning.

Much before we could grasp its significance, our senior year had melted away. June arrived, final exams came, and graduation was at hand. With a deep pride, a certain sentimental nostalgia about leaving Brown behind, and a sense of accomplishment, we walked across the stage, and reached out for our diplomas. We had passed through the end of the beginning and had stepped into a brighter light—the light of tomorrow.

Editor's Acknowledgement

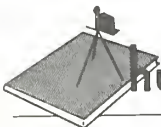

In a publication such as this year's annual, the editor is faced with many difficult decisions. One involves the selection of a theme and the organization of the annual. The editor may either follow ideas accepted in the past, or he may endeavor to expand the scope of the annual with changes in certain stereotyped procedures. If this is done, the future holds only uncertainty. The 1965 ALBROKAN has been published with a very definite purpose in mind. This purpose was determined from the very beginning—to show your high school life as you actually lived it and to show it in such a manner that you will wish to remember it the same way.

I could never have sent this annual to the publisher without the co-ordinated efforts of each member of this year's staff. Their loyalty and endurance will never be surpassed.

Thank you to all who contributed. A very special thanks goes to Paula Smith, who listened to all my problems; Celina Lowder, who rushed with me to meet hectic deadlines; Donna Halder, who worked many hours to obtain ads for the annual; and to Mrs. Carriker, who assisted and advised me on the ALBROKAN.

I hope you will enjoy the combined efforts of the annual staff.
Nancy Dwigins
